

a CITY at WORK

OPENING RECEPTION Thursday, August 3

12:30pm – 2:30pm

A rich collection of photographs representing the creative work of 12 White Plains youths, under the direction of a professional photographer. The exhibit brings into focus the people that bring White Plains to life through public and commercial service. Distinctions of each profession, as well as the commonalities that unify people across cultural borders can be seen through the lenses of these young photographers.
